

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Engaging in such obvious and illegal electioneering serves neither the public interest, nor the spirit of democracy. I fully expect the FCC to put a stop to this, or you will be guilty of knowingly aiding and abetting a crime.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. This is a shameful abuse of power. FCC, do something about this. Failure to do so is to betray the very principles upon which our nation was founded. Thank you.
